

5¹/₂ years ago my marriage was falling apart
& my wife was about to leave me. I was barely supporting my family. I was addicted to cocaine.
Needless to say, my life was a wreck!
I was about to lose everything important to me.

A co-worker invited me to his church. At this point I had nothing to lose.

And now, I'm inviting you to that same church.

Come experience what I did, it can change your life. I look forward to meeting you!
