

Kim & I married from two different religions - Southern Baptist & Catholic. Church is a part of every piece of my childhood, but I was burned out on religiosity. Kim was not fond of the ceremonious aspect of her religious background either, so we have been searching for a unique blend of beliefs.

We visited The Waters, & we were immediately at ease. We found a wonderful group of people who share our appreciation for God, & we feel sincere bonds with everyone there. We are so pleased with the atmosphere, & we want to invite you to join us!

- Tyler & Kim McMurray
www.iamthewaters.com

the waters church

where church meets everyday life

A gift from a neighbor,
come experience the change I did.